

IDENTIFYING CODES USING EUCLIDEAN BALLS

ALINE PARREAU, VILLE JUNNILA AND TERO LAIHONEN

In this talk, we consider as sensors the set \mathbb{Z}^2 where one sensor can check its neighbours within Euclidean distance r . We construct tolerant identifying codes in this network that are robust against some changes in the neighbourhood monitored by each sensor.